BAN AGAINST PREFIXES.

The queerest ruling ever handed down in a Delaware tribunal was made yesterday by Judge Cochrane, in the Wilmington municipal court. He directed that witnesses should not refer to negroes as "Mr.," "Mrs." or "Miss." In order to enforce his decision he fined Christopher Brooks, a negro, $5 and costs for contempt of court because he forgot himself after being warned and again called Sarah Archer, a negress, "Mrs. Archer."

Brooks was charged with breach of the peace and "Mrs. Archer" was the prosecuting witness.

Subsequently, another negro, Isaac J. Henry, was the prosecuting witness against two white men, Walter Coyle and William Welden. Henry's mind was hazy regarding the decision of Judge Cochrane, he supposing the ban against prefixes referred to all humanity, without regard to color

While giving his testimony he called one of the defendants "mister." Then, correcting himself, under fear of being fined for contempt, he bowed to the court and said "Excuse me sah." The crowded courtroom broke out in a loud laugh, the judge and the court attaches being compelled to rap for order.

Thereafter the negro prosecutor referred to the accused as "Coyle" and "Welden."

As Judge Cochrane did not cite any precedent, the only apparent reason for his ruling was that he disliked hearing negroes called "mister" and "mistress" in court.

WOMAN SHOOTS AT NEGRO.

Yesterday morning about 11 o'clock, when Mrs. John W. Preston, whose home is about two miles north of Washington, went up stairs to get an article of clothing for her baby, she found a negro in the room. As he started toward her she seized a revolver from a shelf and fired at him. The negro fell to the floor as if he were shot, and Mrs. Preston ran down stairs, shouting "Murder!"

When she reached the yard she saw the negro jump from an upstairs window and run toward a strip of woods in the rear of the house. As he scaled a fence she fired another shot at him, which only caused him to run with greater speed.

Mrs. Preston, who was alone with her baby, at once telephoned her husband, who is in business in Washington, and Mr. Preston was on the scene about an hour later. He organized a party and traced the negro as far as Kensington, where all trace of him was lost. He dropped his hat when fired at in the room and borrowed an old derby from a colored woman not far from the Preston home.

It is not believed that the negro was shot when he fell as the bullet went through a window pane on a direct line with his position when fired at DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is especially good for piles. Recommended and sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

ANOTHER THEORY.

That Hazel Drew came to her death as the result of an automobile accident instead of being the victim of a foul and deliberate murder was one of the theories put forth in Troy, N. Y., last night as a posible solution of the Teal pond mystery. After five days of careful investigation, in which many theories have been advanced, a motive for the murder is lacking. Nothing has been learned that would warrant the authorities in making an arrest in connection with the crime. This being the case the accident theory is advanced.

The macadam road between Troy and Averill Park is popular with automobilists. A reckless chauffeur, speeding along at night, may have struck the girl with his car, causing her death. Rather than face the consequences, and knowing the country well, it would have been a comparatively easy matter to have taken the girl in the car up the lonely road toward Taborton and to have thrown her body into the mill pond. To give color to a suicide theory the hat and gloves were left on the bank.

Over Thirty-five Years.

In 1872 there was a great deal of diarrhoea, dysentery and cholera infantum. It was at this time that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was first brought into use. It proved more successful than any other remedy or treatment, and has for thirty-five years maintained that record. From a small beginning its sale and use has extended to every part of the United States and to many foreign countries. Nine druggists out of ten will recommend it when their opinion is asked, although they have other medicines that pay them a greater profit. It can always be depended upon, even in the most severe and dangerous cases. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING, JULY 17, 1908.

A BATTLE royal between a $1,000,000,000 combination of manufacturers and shippers against the railroads of the United States was declared on Wednesday in Chicago. The railroads have determined to advance rates at least 10 per cent all over the United States. The large shippers from all parts of the nation have leagued together to fight the advance. A meeting has been called at Chicago on July 24 to open the fight, which will be carried into the courts if necessary, and if not ended before next winter will likely be continued in the legislatures of a score of states. The signal for the fight was the filing with the Interstate Commerce Commission by the Southwestern Freight Association of a notice of a 10 per cent advance, effective August 10. It is expected the advance will be made general all over the United States within the next thirty days. When Greek meets Greek then comes the tug of war.

THE result of the recent election in Walla Walla, Wash., where the democrats defeated the republican candidate for mayor and a Taft man at that, is more than significant. It was the first time the city ever went democratic and coming just before the presidential election shows that the country is undergoing a great change in sentiment. It augurs well for democratic success in November.

THE report of the Interstate Commerce Commission shows that 728 lives were lost and 14,713 persons were injurned in railroad accidents during the three months ending March 31. Most of these accidents resulted from carelessness. It would seem that in this enlightened age something might be done to require railroad men to be more careful at least when they have human lives in their keeping.

THE full dinner pail was made a prominent factor in the McKinley presidential campaign by the late Senator Mark Hanna but that empty dinner pail is likely to weigh heavily upon the republican party this year. The workingmen who have been idle for many months will be apt to inquire under what political regime has become empty the dinner pail that ought to be full.

BOTH the Atlantic and Pacific coasts of the country and the Gulf of Mexico as well are at this time totally unprotected by big battleships. Thus the country is open to attack from any quarter. Yet not a soul—not even a Jingo—utters the least cry of alarm over this situation, save Captain Hobson, but his voice, like that of the turtle, is still heard in the land.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, July 17.

Ohio's senators are very guarded about their utterances concerning the senatorial situation in that State. "It will be time enough to bother about who shall be my successor in the Senate when we have elected a republican legislature in Ohio," said Senator Foraker, when told of Representative Burton's announcement of his candidacy. He added: "I do not think there is any one who seriously doubts that Taft will be elected. In Ohio we have no doubt about the ultimate outcome of the contest. The committees are getting to work and interest in the campaign will increase rapidly from now until the election." "This is not my fight this this year; my fight comes two years hence," said Senator Dick. Senator Foraker is on his way to Northeast Harbor, Maine, while Senator Dick will leave for Ohio Saturday night.

The volume of appropriations, new offices, etc., required by law to be prepared and published at the end of each session of Congress under the direction of the committee on appropriations of the Senate and House, has been completed for the first session of the Sixtieth Congress by Thomas P. Cleaves and James C. Courts, chief clerks respectively of said committees. The summary of the appropriations shows a grand total of $1,008,397,543.56. In addition to the specific appropriations made, contracts are authorized to be entered into for certain public works requiring future appropriations by Congress in the aggregate sum of $49,443,750.

The War Department has decided that it will be more fitting that a general officer shall be sent to Quebec to represent the army at the tercentenary celebration than a major, as at first intended. Major Mott had been designated, but when it was learned that General Roberts, commander-in-chief of the British army is accompanying the Prince of Wales an officer of higher rank was thought necessary. It is probable that Major-General Fred. D. Grant will be selected for that purpose. Admiral Cowles will represent the navy at Quebec.

Minister Rockhill reports from Pekin that the Chinese government has sent to the United States a very appropriative message because of the action of this government in remitting part of the bill of indemnity on account of the Boxer outbreak. The message will convey the information that most of the money which the United States has saved to the Chinese government will be devoted to the sending of Chinese youth to study in American colleges and universities.

The Atlantic Manufacturing Co., in the Northwestern Building, Minneapolis, Minn., was today debarred from the mails by an order of the postmaster general, on the grounds that their operations were fraudulent. According to the postoffice inspectors, the firm operated a scheme of advertising for agents to sell certain novelties.

In sixteen days, General Luke E. Wright, who succeeded Secretary Taft at the head of the War Department, has attained the eminence of the administration's official lid-sitter. Eight of the nine cabinet officers have deserted the capital, one after another. So at present Secretary Wright is the personification of Pooh-Bah in the administration—he is the whole thing.

The Comptroller of the Currency today issued a call for reports of condition of national banks at the close of business Wednesday, July 15.

Justice Anderson today dismissed the petition for dissolution of the Trades Unionist, Publishing Company, the official labor organization in Washington on representation of its officers that they were financially solvent. The company is now able to meet all demands and the petition states that it is stronger now than before this action was taken.

The weather bureau today issued the following: Southwest storm warning ordered displayed 11.50 a. m. Baltimore to New York, high southwest winds and squalls on Middle Atlantic and New England coast during next 25 hours.

THE PROHIBITIONISTS.

At the national convention of prohibitionists held in Columbus, Ohio, yesterday, Eugene W. Chafin, of Chicago, was nominated for president and Aaron S. Watkins, of Ada, Ohio, for vice president.

Among the planks in the platform are the following:

The submission by Congress to the several states of an amendment to the federal constitution prohibiting the manufacture, sale, importation, exportation or transportation of alcoholic liquors for beverage purposes.

The immediate prohibition of the liquor traffic forbeverage purposes in the District of Columbia, in the territories and all places over which the national government has jurisdiction, the repeal of the internal revenue tax on alcoholic liquors and the prohibition of the interstate traffic therein.

The election of United States senators by direct vote of the people.

Equitable graduated income and inheritance taxes.

The establishment of postal savings banks and the guaranty of deposits in banks.

The regulation of all corporations doing an interstate commerce business.

The creation of a permanent tariff commission.

The strict enforcement of law instead of the official tolerance and practical license of the social evil which prevails in many of our cities with its unspeakable traffic in girls.

Uniform marriage and divorce laws.

An equitable and constitutional employers' liability act.

OLD BELLS.

After more than 100 years of calling worshippers to attend divine service, the chime of six bells in the belfry of Christ Episcopal Church, at St. Paul and Chase streets, Baltimore, was removed from the church to make way for a chime of 13 new bells. The old bells are in excellent condition other than being slightly worn, except that the clappers are badly rusted. The oak yokes that supported the bells are as good as when first put in use, save being cracked from age and long seasoning. The bells bear the inscription, "Thomas Mears, of London, Fecit, 1804."

The five smaller bells will be broken up and their metal recast and made over into the new chime of 13 bells to be placed in the church, probably sometime next October. The largest of the old bells will be given to the congregation of the Church of the Messiah.

MARRIED IN IMMANUEL CHURCH.

Last evening in Immanuel Episcopal Church, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Kensey Johns Hammond, Miss Evelyn Lewis Machen, of Fairfax county, Va., and Clarence Edward Davidson, of Houma, Louisiana, were married. Only the immediate family of the bride was present. The wedding took place from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kensey Johns Hammond, the bride being a sister of Mrs. Hammond. The groom is a prominent banker of his home city, and he and his bride will live there following a brief wedding tour. Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the rectory to the immediate relatives of the newly wedded couple.—[Wilmington, (Del.) News, July 9th.

GOING TO EUROPE

Squire August Henning, of Vienna, will sail from Baltimore early next week for a visit to England and Germany. While there he will meet his brother, an officer who has served in India under Lord Kitchener, and whom he has not seen for thirty years or more. The trip will necessarily be a delightful one, and the Herald wishes the squire a pleasant trip and safe return to old Fairfax. He will be absent until about the first of October.—[Fairfax Herald.

Killed by Explosion of Powder.

Cle Elum, Washn., July 17.—Fragments of their bodies scattered for half a mile, nine persons are dead here today through the explosion of a carload of powder at the plant of the Northwestern Improvement Company. The manager and the clerks from the company's store had gone to the powder house to aid in unloading a carload of explosives when a tremendous roar shook the whole neighborhood. People in this town, three-quarters of a mile away, were thrown from their feet by the force of the explosion and windows were shattered for miles around.

A woman and her child were in a tent near the powder house when the explosion came. Not a vestige remains of the tent or of their bodies. They were blown to dust.

Muffled cries were heard in the ruins of the powder magazine when hundreds rushed to the scene after the crash, but they soon died away. At this time it is not believed that any of the victims are alive.

An earthquake in Chile, Peru and Bolivia has caused a considerable destruction of property, but no loss of live is reported.

News of the Day.

The Anti-Imperialist League of Boston came to life again yesterday and celebrated the event by sending out an appeal to its friends to bolt Taft in favor of Bryan.

Minister Merry yesterday sent a dispatch from Nicaragua stating that the revolution in Honduras had failed, but further news is awaited in confirmation, owing to his distance from the scene.

President Roosevelt will not talk into a phonograph for campaign purposes, and the joint speech making stunt with Bryan which a talking machine company hoped to pull off will not take place.

The Paris judge yesterday postponed until next Wednesday hearing in the case of Count Boni de Castellane, who is trying to regain the custody of his three children from their mother, Princess de Sagan, formerly Anna Gould.

All unannounced the presidents of the big railroads of the east met in New York yesterday and held a long discussion of the question of making a general 10 per cent increase in freight rates. With the result that nothing was decided on.

It is said in labor circles in Washington that upon the return to that city of Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, the early part of next week, an appeal to all organized labor to vote for William Jennings Bryan for president will be issued.

Count Boni de Castellane in Paris yesterday formally filed suit for such revision of the decree of divorce obtained against him by his wife, who was Miss Anna Gould, of New York, as will give him the custody of their three children. The hearing has been set for July 27.

While preparations were being made early today for his removal to a Pittsburg hospital, because of ill health, Charles W. Hamilton, an assistant district attorney of Allegheny county, Pa., seized a revolver and shot himself in the head. He died without gaining consciousness.

A dispatch from Manila says a pleasure launch, carrying seventy-five persons to Corregidor Island, foundered yesterday, and twenty-five of the passengers were drowned. Three of the victims were Americans, one of whom, it is believed, is an army surgeon. The launch was running across the bay, when it was caught in a sudden typhoon and capsized, throwing its occupants into the water. The Suverica, a British steamer, was within a mile of the little boat, and immediately steamed to the rescue. Before the steamer's boats could reach the struggling people, however, twenty-five had drowned. The others were taken aboard the Suverica.

HEARST WILL OPPOSE BRYAN.

A cablegram has been received in New York from William Randolph Hearst, now in Paris, in reply to a message transmitted to Mr. Hearst from Samuel Gompers, who said that, in view of the democrats' stand for labor, it would be "an act of greatest patriotism for the independence party to indorse the democratic platform," Gompers urging him not to run on a third ticket, as is would elect Taft. Mr. Hearst's cablegram is as follows:

"Tell Mr. Gompers that I am not authorized to speak for the membership of the independence league, but according to my personal standards, a purer patriotism consists in laboring to establish a new party, which will be constantly devoted to the interest of the citizenship, and particularly to the advantage and advancement of the producing classes.

"I do not think the path of patriotism lies in supporting a discredited and decadent old party, which has neither conscient ous conviction nor honest intention, or in indorsing chameleon candidates who change the color of their political opinion with every varying hue of opportunism.

"I do not think the best benefit of laboring men lies in supporting that old party, because of a sop of false promises, when the performance of that party, while in power, did more to injure labor than all the injunctions ever issued before or since.

"I have lost faith in the empty professions of an unregenerate democracy.

"I have lost confidence in the ability, in the sincerity, and even in the integrity of its leaders.

"I do not consider it patriotism to pretend to support that which, as a citizen, I distrust and detest, and I earnestly hope the independence party will give me an opportunity to vote for candidates that are both able and honest, and for a declaration of principles that is both sound and sincere"

CHAPEL ON STEAMER.

Pilgrims to Rome—200 Catholics, clergy and laymen, sailed from New York yesterday on the steamer Carpathia for Naples. Twenty-one priests were in the pilgrimage, Monsignor McGean, of St. Peter's, New York, is the spiritual director of the party. Catholics from all parts of the country gathered at New York to embark on the steamer.

The pilgrims will journey to Rome, where they will present to the pope congratulations from the faithful in America. An address in Latin will be delivered before to the pontiff in the name of all the churches of America. By special permission of the archbishop of New York, the benediction of the blessed sacrament will be permitted on board the ship, this being the first time this rite has been served outside of a consecrated church.

A feature of the pilgrimage is the converting of the second cabin dining-room into a temporary chapel. The altar is in the middle of the forward end of the room, and is arranged for complete service. Mass will be celebrated in the chapel each morning, and the benediction of the blessed sacrament every afternoon. In Rome the pilgrims will be met by Cardinal Gibbons and Archbishop Farley.

New York Stock Market.

New York, July 27.—The interesting feature this morning was the strength in all the Gould issues and in stocks of roads in what was called the old Gould system. A good part of the buying in these issues seemed to come through Standard Oil houses and it was supposed that some announcement of a favorable character in regard to their affairs is close at hand. The stocks that have been most active recently were heavy with the larger room traders sellers but the declines were mostly fractional.

Virginia News.

Will Finney, the negro who on Monday beat 11-year-old Mary Jamison, daughter of John Jamison, a Franklin county farmer, almost to death, was captured yesterday evening at Calloway, seventeen miles from the scene of the crime, and rushed last night to Franklin county jail, at Rocky Mount, for safe keeping.

The second day of the Manassas Horse Show was marred yesterday by an unfortunate accident, when Mrs. Allan Potts, driving Lord Chesterfield, turned suddenly toward the center of the ring. J. C. Meet, who was driving just in the rear of her, not having time to check, drove his horse straight into her runabout, striking it broadside and wrecking it. Neither Mrs. Potts nor her horse was injured. H. I. Goodwin sustained severe injuries in the steeplechase when his horse fell at one of the jumps, falling on him.

William P. Blackwell, aged 20, son of the late Deputy Sheriff Thomas Blackwell, of Roanoke county, is dying at Jefferson Hospital, Roanoke, where he was operated on yesterday for gunshot wounds in the abdomen. Blackwell was engaged on railroad construction work. James Parker, another young man, lost a locket which was found by Blackwell and returned to Parker. The latter offered to pay Blackwell 25 cents reward. Blackwell said he thought he should receive more money. Parker, it is said, told him he would shoot him. Blackwell, thinking Parker was joking, told him to shoot away. Parker, it is alleged, picked up a double-barreled shotgun and fired both barrels at Blackwell. Parker was arrested.

PARADE OF THE SHRINERS.

Yesterday was Minneapolis Day in Shriners' Week, and the members of the order who have been attending the imperial conclave in St. Paul's were the guests of Zurah Temple, Minneapolis.

Now that the sessions of the Imperial Council are ended some of the nobles have already left the city, but several thousand still remained to take in the excursions that had been planned for today.

This afternoon will be observed as a holiday in St. Paul, and the civic and industrial parade will take place. This parade, through a feature of Shriners' Week, will illustrate the growth and prosperity of the northwest. Twelve full companies of Minnesota National Guard will be in line, as will be the entire garrison of Fort Snelling. Many elaborate floats will be a feature. The parade will be viewed by the Shriners' Imperial Council. Tonight there will be a reception at the auditorium and a ball at the armory.

It became known yesterday that the Imperial Council Wednesday afternoon disciplined El Madia Temple, El Paso, Tex. This temple has been under dispensation for a year, and at this conclave applied for a charter. Not only did the temple fail to get its charter, but it was ordered to suspend all work until December 1 as punishment for obtaining members outside its own territory.

VIRGINIA DENTISTS.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected by the State Dental Association, in Richmond yesterday afternoon as follows: P. A. Lee, of Lynchburg, president; E. J. Applewhite, of Newport News, first vice-president; P. W. Stiff, of Richmond, second vice-president; W. H. Mosely, of South Boston, third vice-president; W. M. Sturgess, of Norfolk, treasurer; George F. Keesee, of Richmond, recording secretary, and W. H. Pearson, of Hampton, corresponding secretary.

The following executive committee was chosen: Wm. Pilcher, of Petersburg, chairman; Drs. Manning and Womack.

The following candidates were nominated to be recommended to the governor for a choice of two to fill the vacancies on the State Board of Dental Examiners: W. H. Campbell, J. P. Stiff, C. A. Newlan and W. H. Ewald.

The next place of meeting will be at the Mecklenburg Hotel, Chase City, unless the National Association of Dentists meets in Virginia, in which event the state association will meet with the national body.

After the afternoon session yesterday the convention adjourned sine die.

DENIALS FROM MR. BRYAN.

William J. Bryan does not intend to be drawn into the Brownsville case if he can help it. In all his conversations with visiting delegations and others, he has carefully refrained from talking on that subject, and yesterday he put the brand of untruthfulness of an alleged statement made by Bishop Walters, of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, to the effect that he had assured a negro delegation that he regarded President Roosevelt's action in that case as unjust.

At the same time Mr. Bryan denied another alleged interview of the bishop, that he had discussed the appointment of negroes to office.

"Bryan will get 90 per cent of the organized labor vote of the country," said Mr. Schultels after an interview with Mr. Bryan yesterday. "He will get at least 80 per cent of the unorganized labor vote. We will elect a democratic Congress. We propose to show these men who pooh-pooh the idea that there is a labor vote that candidates and conditions have given the opportunity and the cause for labor to get together and keep together."

RULES FOR MOTOR BOATS.

A letter from the secretary of the department of commerce and labor defining the equipment required on small motor craft, just published, states that, to insure uniformity in the enforcement of the law, all motor vessels, without regard to size or use, must be provided with an efficient whistle or siren, fog horn, and bell. When being navigated between sunset and sunrise, a bright white light must be at the bow of the craft, a green light on the starboard side and a red light on the port, each provided with proper screens. In addition to the lights already enumerated, a white range light must be placed aft. Each vessel is required to have on board two printed copies of the rules and regulations of navigation, which can be obtained from the department at Washington. The above will be of interest to many persons in this city who own motor boats or have interest in the same.

Today's Telegraphic News

Set up Independent Government.

Lisbon, July 17.—Backed by the entire penal colony on the island of Timor, in the Malay Archipeligo, Jose Silva, a Portuguese soldier of fortune, and the governor of the colony, has set up an independent government, garrisoned the island with his convict followers and defied the Portuguese government. Immediately upon receipt of the news today, the minister of marine telegraphed Mozambique, the chief city of Portuguese east African possession, and ordered all available troops rushed aboard the cruiser Adamaster, now cruising in African waters. Orders were also dispatched to the commander of the vessel to proceed at top speed to Timor to force the surrender of Colonel Silva and if necessary lay siege to the city. The trouble was precipitated at Timor a few weeks ago when the Lisbon government, learning of Colonel Silva's intrigue, ordered a new governor to the colony. Upon the arrival of the new official Silva refused to surrender his office and the new governor's dispatch today revealed his plight.

To Shake the Dust of France.

Paris, July 17.—Princess de Sagan, formerly Mme. Anna Gould, is to forswear Paris and France and endeavor to establish a new social peerage in the German principality of her new husband. It was announced here today that the Princess Anna has offered her splendid Chateau Mariaa for sale, the price named being $250,000, and it is said that after disposing of it she will sell the famous residence on the avenue Bois de Boulogne and follow this with a general sale of her French investments. With the capital thus raised she hopes to buy back the whole or bigger part of Prince de Sagan's family estate on the German frontier, restore it to its original splendor and there occupy a dominant social position. It is said that Princess Anna's plans call for her spending six months of the year in her German principality and the other six months with her husband in America. The decision is reported to have been brought about as a result of the social snub they have received in Paris since the notoriety they received preceding their marriage.

Preparing Speech of Acceptance.

Hot Springs, Va., July 17.—Up with the sun, Candidate Taft got to work today on his speech of acceptance before breakfast and only stopped long enough to admit that many of his two hundred letters a day are coming from southern democrats who predict big gains for him south of Mason and Dixon's line. Many of these letters, he said, are coming from Maryland, Kentucky, Tennessee, North Carolina and Georgia where his correspondents say, a number of democratic leaders are only waiting a decent opportunity to climb on the Taft band wagon. The republican managers in Kentucky, Mr. Taft has been informed, are almost certain that they will carry that state, and they have great hopes of success in Tennessee and Maryland. In North Carolina they are hopeful, but they confidently believe that the Smith-Brown-Howell fight in Georgia will put that state in the republican column.

The Sultan's Troubles.

Constantinople, July 17.—With failing health, internal disorders in his own State and political complications abroad worrying him to distraction, Sultan Abdul Hamid had his troubles increased today by a warning from his advisors that the contemplated marriage of his son to a Christian princess will involve the nation in a revolt.

The sultan's latest political worry is a note from Germany discouraging Turkey's overtures for an alliance with Germany, The latter country wants the friendship of Turkey, but Emperor William is afraid of the effect of an open alliance with the "Bloody Turk." Abdul Hamid wants some power to back him up in his opposition to Russia's increasing interference in his affairs. Germany seemed the most available and the note of refusal has therefore caused the keenest disappointment.

The Cost of War.

Berlin, July 17.—"A European war at this time would cost $16,000,000,000 annually and result in America becoming the undisputed leader of the world." This is the statement of Military Expert General Blume, who was commissioned by Emperor William to prepare a report on the probable cost of another war. If Germany were to fight another European power, General Blume says, it would cost the empire $1,500,000,000 a year in direct outlay and entail a loss of $2,500,000,000 annually in the paralysis of her commerce. General Blume figures that owing to the delicate adjustment of European politics, the next war will involve at least four powers, and that the foregoing estimate of cost would apply to each, making a total annual cost of $16,000,000,000. Such a financial drain, he says, could have but one result, the world supremacy of the United States.

The Gould Divorce Suit.

New York, July 17.—All hope of reconciliation having been abandoned, the divorce suit of Mrs. Frank J. Gould goes on the motion calendar of the Supreme Court today. That no "lover's quarrel" is the cause of war between the youngest heir to Jay Gould's millions and his wife is indicated by the importation of two lanky Nova Scotians who will tell in court of alleged breaches of his marital vows when Gould and a yachting party visited Sydney, C. B., in 1905. Mr. Gould admits having put into Sydney with a yachting party at the time named, but declares he spent his whole time there with Manager Earle, of the Western Union Telegraph offices. Earle is prepared to swear that Gould "was good."

England and Japan.

London, July 17.—Startling evidence of the growing unfriendliness between England and Japan came to light today when it was announced that the House of Commons will take notice that the Japanese are gradually crowding British commerce out of Korea and Manchuria. The controversy has been pushed into parliamentary prominence by the China Association, a powerful organization of Englishmen with interests in the far East. It has urged a sharp protest to Tokio. Leading members of the organization are bringing influence to bear to prevent the extension of the Anglo-Japanese alliance, and several are even urging an understanding between England and America relative to oriental affairs.

Destructive Fires.

Stamford, Conn., July 17.—The postoffice and several buildings in the business district of Greenwich are reported burning. Telephone communication entirely cut off. Aid sent from here.

Everett, Pa., July 17.—Fire, believed to have been of incendiary origin early today, destroyed the plant of the Elk Tanning Company here. The blaze started in the hair house and communicated to the steam tanning department and the hide storage house. A scarcity of water seriously hampered the firemen. The damage is estimated at $350,000. More than 200 men are thrown out of employment.

A later dispatch says the flames started in a livery stable. The arrival of outside aid enabled the firemen to quell the flames. Practically the whole heart of the town's business district has been wiped out.

New York, July 17.—Four tenement houses in Harlem's Little Italy which house scores of families, were almost destroyed today by an incendiary. In one house eight separate fires, were started and here Beniano Conino, who lives a few blocks away was captured with a bottle of benzine in his pocket after a desperate fight.

No sooner were the excited tenants of the building quieted and the flames extinguished than the firemen were called to east 109th. street, a large tenement house near where eleven people died in a fire a few months ago. There, and on east 113th. street, another at No. 329 east 114th. street, whence alarms quickly came giving evidence that an incendiary had been at work. Early alarms made the loss by the flames inconsiderable and prevented what might have been panic resulting in severe loss by fire.

Sensational Murder Trial.

Huntsville, Mo., July 17.—Prostrated by the swearing away of her reputation by her mother and other relatives in the effort to save her brother, Beulah Carter may not be able to take the witness stand today to tell personally of the slaying of her sweetheart, Thomas Bagby, at the preliminary hearing of Irvin Carter, her avenging brother. The 16-year-old heroine of the most sensational murder hearing of recent years in Missouri is on the verge of a mental and nervous collapse, and it is doubtful if her doctors will allow her to testify.

If she fails to appear the trial, already replete with startling admissions of the decreeing of Bagby's death at a family council and the execution of the plan when he sought another clandestine meeting with the girl, will be robbed of its greatest sensation. Beulah's story has been practically told, however, through the testimony of her mother, who related the girl's confession.

That Beulah was forced to yield to Bagby was the most startling statement of Mrs. Carter on the witness stand yesterday. Bagby, she testified, had been in the habit of meeting the girl at her bedroom window where he finally met his death, at night. On one occasion he placed his handkerchief over her mouth and forced her to accompany him to the barn and held her prisoner until nearly daylight. This was repeated on several occasions, Mrs. Carter stated. When Beulah's family learned of her wrongs and decreed Bagby's death, he was shot at the window after being warned to keep away.

To Defy Anti-Race Gambling Law.

New York, July 17.—Millionaire members of the Jockey Club are aiding bookmakers to defy the anti-race gambling law, according to acting District Attorney Elder, of Kings county, who today issued a statement specifically accusing James R. Keene, Vice President of the Jockey Club; Allan Pinkerton, and Chris. J. Fitzgerald, President of the Brighton Beach Racing Association.

Mr. Elder went further than a general denunciation of the wealthy patrons of the tracks, and stated that the Kings county grand jury, which has already found twenty-two indictments in this connection, had evidence against Keene, Pinkerton and Fitzgerald before it at the present time.

Mr. Elder's declaration was drawn forth by the arrest today of two of the plain clothes detectives who are alleged to have aided in stripping and searching bookmakers yesterday at the track. M. J. Kessell and J. Herrick, two of those who felt the hand of the police, today swore out warrants before Magistrate Tighe for Detectives Cunningham and McKinley, who were later arrested despite vigorous protest by Mr. Elder.

Will Award No Championship.

London, July 17.—On account of the criticism made against its method of scoring, the British Olympic Association is said to have decided to award no championship in the Olympic games held in London or in the sports being held in the Stadium.

America is hopelessly behind and stands no chance of winning the Olympic championship in the contests now being held here, according to the system of scoring points adopted by the English sporting papers This system gives equal prominence to every sporting contest carried out under the auspices of the British Olympic Association, scoring one point for each first, and ignoring seconds and thirds.

London, July 17.—Tonight the matter of whether an Olympic championship will be awarded is in the air. It is announced that the statement of this afternoon, credited to the management, in which it was declared that the team championship would not be awarded, was premature.

Bryan Refuses to Comment.

Lincoln, Neb., July 17.—William J. Bryan refuses to be drawn into any controversy with W. R. Hearst. He refused today to comment on the interview cabled from Paris by Hearst in which the latter characterized the leaders of democracy as corrupt. Bryan made it plain that he intended to stand squarely on the platform adopted at Denver and to refuse to discuss any matters not included in it. But this does not mean that the Hearst attitude is to be ignored.

Today Mr. Bryan gave out the text of an appeal which he and vice-presidential candidate Kern have prepared. It is addressed to the farmers of the United States, and in part says the first contributions made to the democratic campaign fund this year was made by an Iowa farmer for $100.

Kodol will without doubt help anyone who has stomach disorders or stomach troubles Take Kodol today and continue it for the short time that is necessary to give you complete relief. Kodol is sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

Confessed to Five Murders.

Clarksburg, W. Va., July 17.—Sentenced to be hanged late today for the murder of Beulah Martin, a negress, at Gypsy, W. Va., in March, 1908, Frank Johnson, a giant negro, has confessed to ministers here that he has murdered five persons since 1896. One white man and four colored women were his victims.

DEPARTURE OF THE YANKEE.

Officers and men of naval militia of the District of Columbia, numbering 175, arrived in Alexandria on electric trains about 9:30 o'clock last night and boarded the U. S. S. Yankee preparatory to their sailing this morning for Hampton Roads, where they will participate in the naval maneuvers to be held there next week. The sailors left the cars at King and Fairfax streets, and their yells attracted a crowd of people.

The Yankee will be part of a fleet of naval militia organizations.

The maneuvers will include everything from regular ship routine and drill to theoretical battle. There will be a fire drill, boat drill and all others, but the most interesting of all will undoubtedly be the signal work.

The Yankee weighed anchor and proceeded down the river about 6:30 this morning.

FELL FROM A STREET CAR.

Taken with a fit while riding in a Fourteenth street car near Fourteenth and Pierce streets northwest Washington about 8 o'clock last night, Mrs. C. L. Summers, living at 505 Duke street, in this city, fell from the car into the street, and was picked up unconscious. She was removed to Freedmen's Hospital. Her condition is critical. Mrs. Summers left her home yesterday afternoon to visit her brother-in-law, James Palmer, 1229 S street northwest Washington, and had almost reached her destination when taken ill. Mrs. Summers was badly cut about the head, and it is thought she is injured internally. She is the widow of Frank Summers.

The news of the accident was sent by telephone from Washington to the police station in this city, when Lieutenant Smith directed officers to notify members of Mrs. Summers's family of the occurence.

DEATH OF AN EX-POLICEMAN.

Mr. Samuel Ticer, who for about twenty years was a member of the police force of this city, died at 4:30 p. m. yesterday at his home, 524 Queen street, after a long illness. The deceased was 63 years old and is survived by a widow, three daughters, and a son. He was a son of the late Lewis Ticer, at one time a member of the night watch force, and for many years was employed as a cooper at the old Jamieson bakery on north Lee street. Four years ago Mr. Ticer was stricken with paralysis after which he was retired from the police department. He was a veteran of the civil war, having served in the Second District of Columbia regiment. Mr. Ticer was a member of Osceola Tribe of Red Men and Alexandria Council, No. 33, Junior Order of United American Mechanics.

Lots at this park are being staked off and about the first of next week they will be numbered, after which each purchaser will be presented with a plat in order to familiarize the owners with the different locations. A meeting of the association will be held at the office of Norton and Boothe at 10 o'clock Monday morning when the new charter will be adopted and a reorganization effected. The old officers will be re-elected and a few others will take the places of the original members who have died.

STRUCK BY PIECE OF FLYING METAL.

Mr. James Beach was seriously injured yesterday evening in the yard of his residence on Fairfax street, between Wilkes and Gibbon. He was engaged in testing the machinery of a power launch when a portion of it broke and a piece of the metal was hurled with great force against his abdomen. Dr. Gibson, who was summoned, rendered medical aid.

TO GO TO CHICKAMAUGA.

Company G, Seventieth Virginia Regiment, under command of Capt. F. L. Slaymaker, will leave this city at 6 30 o'clock next Thursday morning on a special train over the Southern Railway for Roanoke, where the regiment will assemble and proceed to Chickamauga Park, Ga., for ten day's encampment and instruction. The members of the command will be furnished with khaki uniforms for the trip.

BELIEVES NEGRO ROBBED HIM

Ephriam Brown, living near Burke's station, Fairfax county, informed the police of this city last night that Arthur Jones, colored, who had been living at his house for two weeks, has disappeared and Brown believes he carried with him two suits of clothes, two pairs of trousers, a pair of shoes, several smaller articles of wearing apparel and a revolver belonging to the complainant.

SUSPECT RELEASED.

Victoria Lee, colored, was again before the Police Court this morning an suspicion of stealing $17 from Elijah Darling, colored, the case having been postponed yesterday until today. There was no evidence upon which to convict the woman and she was released. Mr. Robinson Moncure represented the woman. This was the only case before the court this morning.

ROMEO AND JULIET.

This remarkable masterpiece of Shakespeare has been appreciated to a remarkable degree by hundreds who have seen it portrayed in motion pictures at 426 King street—the Alexandria Amusement Company. In fact it has almost been impossible to accommodate the patrons. Owing to this and in order to give everyone a chance who wishes to see it, this show will be repeated tonight only. There will also be a very funny reel called "Energizer."

EVICTION AND ARREST.

Henry Washington, a one-legged negro, who often figures in the Police Court as plaintiff, defendant, witness or spectator, has recently been living with his family in a house on Queen street belonging to a lady of this city. Recently Washington refused to recognize the legal owner of the property, claiming that the title is vested in Mrs. Margaret Deneal Kelly, of Washington, who says she inherited the same from relatives in this city, who owned the property since 1815. Washington was subsequently ordered by the agent of the owner to vacate the house. This he refused to do, and it became necessary yesterday to resort to law and place his household effects in the street. Today, however, the tenant replaced them in the house, and when the agent appeared on the scene he was confronted by Mrs. Kelly, a man who gave his name as Stephen O. Weaver and M. A. Faley, a Washington lawyer. Mrs. Kelly was in an excited condition, and her excited talking as well as that of her lawyer who was armed with a number of legal papers created a scene which drew a crowd. The agent of the lady owning the property took the bull by the horns by invoking the aid of the police and Lieutenant Bettis arrested the trio and they were locked up in the station house on a charge of conspiracy and with injuring property. Washington's effects were again put into the street, but he had in the meantime vanished. Later the woman and the two men were arraigned before Justice Caton in the Police Court. After listening to the facts in the case the justice decided that the Washingtonians had no claim whatever on the property, and that should they again attempt to exercise jurisdiction they would be arrested and summarily dealt with. Washington's family were warned of the consequences if they attempted to move into the house again.

NOT SMALLPOX.

A physician who is attending a patient in a quarantined house on south Washington street insisted that the case was one of chickenpox while another physician contended that the patient was suffering with smallpox, which was of a mild form. The former still holding to his opinion invited a Washington physician, who is considered an expert in such diseases, to come here and settle the question. The Washington doctor came here this morning and after a careful examination of the case pronounced it chickenpox, stating, however, that in this stage of the disease some of the symptoms were so similar that they might easily be taken for smallpox. It is hoped that this may settle the smallpox scare, which has possessed some Alexandrians for the past few weeks.

MAN THROWN OVERBOARD.

A well-known Alexandrian who is often the victim of practical jokers, while in an irresponsible condition yesterday evening fell asleep at the foot of Prince street. The cranium of the man is as smooth as a ten-pin ball, it having had no hirsute covering for many years. Several of his companions procured paint of divers colors and succeeded in portraying a crude human face on the bald pate. The jokers subsequently picked up the tipsy man and cast him into the dock. The victim, having been aroused by such treatment, called for aid, when one of his tormentors picked up a black three-legged dog which prowls about the wharves and threw it at him. The man and dog were subsequently pulled out of the dock.

TO EQUIP LINE WITH INDICATORS.

The Pettey Electrical Indicator Signal Company, of this city, today received an order from the W., A. & Mt. V. Ry. Co. to equip their entire system with their danger signals used at crossings for the prevention of collisions. The railway company has had several types of signals on trial, but the Pettey company has been awarded the contract over their competitors. The Pettey device will supplant the present types of bell signals now operated on their lines. Messrs. R. W. King, general manager, and Percy Clift, superintendent of the W., A. & Mt. V. Ry. Co., stated today that the signal made by the Pettey company was far ahead of anything they have seen.

STILL AT LARGE.

Nothing so far has been heard of the colored man, Ernest McKnight, who it is claimed on Monday evening last attempted an assault on a girl named Harrison, a few miles west of this city. Magistrate Stuart issued the warrant for the man and notified the authorities at Leesburg to look out for him, but has received no reply. It is said in the county that some of the accounts of the affair have been very much exaggerated and that even if McKnight was captured no serious crime could be proved against him.

THE CITY BONDS.

It is understood the 3.65 city bonds of the issue of 1879 are now selling at par and the purchasers have notified the city auditor that they will at once exchange these bonds for the new issue, which are to bear four per cent from July 1st, 1908. This shows that the new issue will readily sell at par if any of these bonds are put upon the market.

THE WEATHER.

The mercury took a decided drop early last night and by midnight it had gotten down to 65°. The temperature ascended again today and at noon it registered 86°. A fine breeze, however, made the temperature appear lower.

HAM TALK

NO. I.

The majority of people nowadays think that because a ham is called a ham one is as good as the other. THEY'RE WRONG. There are some people who are of the "I don't care" variety and then there are a great many who are mighty particular about what they eat. In just this way is the "AUTH" brand different from the others.

There are a great many "we don't care kind pork packers who simply kill the hog and smoke the ham. It's just like eating meat without salt. You're getting substance but no flavor. The AUTH way is entirely different.

When the hog is killed the ham goes through a special "Auth" process of curing, spicing and smoking that gives the ham that delightful "Auth" flavor. Please remember that the "particular" brand of ham is sold only at the "Auth" Stand, namely:

Things He Didn't Understand.

A shrewd, worldly agnostic and a Christian clergyman dressed in a modest clerical suit sat at the same table in the Pullman dining car. They were waiting for the first course at the dinner, a delicious Hudson river shad. Eying his companion coldly for a moment, the agnostic remarked:

"I judge you are a clergyman, sir?"

"Yes, sir. I am in my Master's service."

"Yes, you look it. Preach out of the Bible, don't you?"

"Oh, yes; of course."

"Find a good many things in that old book that you don't understand, don't you?"

"Oh, yes; some things."

"Well, what do you do then?"

"Why, my dear friend, I simply do just as I do while eating this delicious shad. If I come to a bone I quietly lay it on one side and go on enjoying the shad and let some fool insist on choking himself with the bones."

Then the agnostic wound up his Waterbury watch and went into the smoker.—Exchange.

Medicine in Ancient Egypt.

There is much evidence in inscriptions and manuscripts that the ancient Egyptians practiced medicine and surgery extensively. Probably their practice was based on little knowledge of anatomy. Each physician treated only one or two diseases. The sick were exposed in public places so that others who had suffered similarly might tell them of helpful remedies. Diseases of the eye were best understood and received both medical and surgical treatment. The most important medical manuscript found in Egypt is the Papyrus Ebers, written 3000 B. C. and discovered in Memphis. Disease, according to the Egyptians, was due to the anger of some deity, the result of the triumph of evil in its struggle with good, an idea which is still very general throughout Africa and Asia and which at some time has been prevalent in modified forms in almost every race. —"Records of the Past."

In a Fog.

Nothing has such a bewildering effect as fog. Only animals which find their way by scent can get about in it with any certainty. Birds are entirely confused by it. Tame pigeons remain all day motionless and half asleep, huddled up, either in or just outside their pigeon houses. Chickens remain motionless for hours during heavy fogs. No bird sings or utters a call, perhaps because it fears to betray its whereabouts to an unseen foe. During one very thick fog a blind man was found wandering about a certain district of London. This man was in the habit of coming up every day from a suburb, carrying notes and parcels, and had scarcely ever lost his way before. Asked why he had gone astray (for he was quite blind, and it was supposed that weather would have made no difference), he said that in a fog the ground "sounded quite differently."—Chums.

Entranced.

The happy couple dashed through the showers of rice and old shoes and reached the train.

"Oh, George," whispered the blushing bride, "do you hear what they are shouting?"

"No," replied George, trying to loosen a white ribbon that had been attached to his silk hat. "What are they shouting?"

"'They're off! They're off!'"

George smiled broadly as he helped her aboard the parlor car.

"Oh, that's all right, my dear," he assured. "All couples are a little off when they are starting on their honeymoon."

And then began the rainbow tour personally conducted by Hymen.—Chicago News.

He Couldn't Bend.

A young man engaged board and lodging in a private family who were extremely devout. Before each meal a long grace was said. To their dismay and horror the new boarder sat bolt upright while the others at table reverently bowed their heads. When the second day passed and the young man evinced no disposition to unbend the good lady of the house could endure the situation no longer.

"Atheism?" asked she sharply.

"No, madam," humbly responded the new boarder· "boil."

A Quick Wit.

Husband—Did you notice how ill tempered my colleague was this evening? He was annoyed because I have brought you a new set of jewelry. Now he will have to get a new set for his wife too. Wife—A disagreeable fellow that man is! If I were you, I would annoy him often.—Fliegende Blatter.

Real Distinction.

"Is Mr. Scudds a man of scientific distinction?"

"Yes, indeed," answered Miss Cayenne. "He has so many college degrees that when he sends in his card you can't be sure whether it is his name or a problem in algebra."—London Tit-Bits.

Friends of Our Friends.

Nothing astonishes us, as a rule, more than the friends of our friends. We invariably look upon them with suspicion and wonder, especially when we have heard a great deal about them, in what their attraction can possibly consist.—London Ladies' Field.

Sweetness.

He (sympathizing with his bride, who has just been stung)—How intelligent was that bee, my dear, to know that we're on our honeymoon!—Judy.

If everybody knew what one says of the other there would not be one friend left in the world.—Pascal.

Bert Barber, of Elton, Wis., says: "I have only taken four doses of DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills and they have done for me more than any other medicine has ever done." Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

Tourist Excursion Fares.

The Southern Railway announces effective June 1st resumption of sale of tourist excursion tickets to points in Virginia, North and South Carolina, Tennessee, etc., and return. These tickets will be on sale daily until September 30; final return limit October 31 unless otherwise specified. For further information apply to nearest coupon ticket agent, Southern Railway.

Broiled Prairie Dog.

"Prairie dog, broiled ... are good eatin'," said the zoo keeper, "but you couldn't get a plainsman to admit it.

"The plainsmen claims that owls and rattlesnakes and prairie dogs fraternize together, share holes and eat one another's dead corpses at the end. They claim that to eat prairie dog is the same thing as to eat rattlesnake or owl.

"Of course it's only a superstition, but it holds good on the plains, and prairie dog is never eaten there. I eat it, though, every chance I get. It has a fine taste. It tastes, by gum, like young chicken."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

How to Prevent Nightmare.

Referring to the frequency with which unpleasant dreams, and more particularly the classical nightmare, occur, Dr. Kehrer, the Munich specialist says: "Persons who are subject to disturbances of this sort should allow three or four hours to elapse between the last meal and going to bed; should not let this last meal be too hearty a one and should make it a point to avoid all indigestible dishes and alcoholic drinks with the evening meal."

Beyond Her Sphere.

Mrs. Finicky—Norah, I just read that a celebrated German doctor says a broom is full of bacteria, so hereafter you'll have to give your broom an antiseptic bath each day. The Maid—I'll do nawthin' av the kind! It'll likely git worse soon an' thin rayquire alkyhol rubs, massage trafemiuts, hypdyrdermic injections an' hot wather bottles at night, an' I'll have ye understhand right now that I'm no thrained nurse!—Puck.

Missed the Fun.

"What are you crying for, my little boy?"

"Boohoo! Pa fell downstairs!"

"Don't take so on, my pet. He'll get better soon."

"Sister saw him fall all the way. I never saw nuffin."

Method will teach you to win time.—Goethe.

Bobby Remembered.

Binks after inviting his friend Jinks, who has just returned from abroad, to dinner is telling him what a fine memory his little son Bobby has.

"And do you suppose he will remember me?" said Jinks.

"Remember you! Why, he remembers every face that he ever saw."

An hour later they enter the house and after Jinks has shaken hands with Mrs. Binks he calls Bobby over to him.

"And do you remember me, my little man?"

"'Course I do! You're the same felle that pa brought home last summe and ma wuz so mad about it that sh. didn't speak to pa fur a whole week.' —Galveston News.

Only Slept There.

Dickens, looking for local color for his novel of "Hard Times," visited Manchester. He went through the hovels of certain Manchester cotton spinners, and these foul houses filled him with pity and horror. Meeting the Manchester manufacturer who owned them, he said:

"And do your employees really live in such houses as these?"

"Certainly not," the manufacturer replied. "They only sleep in them. They live in my mill."

Not Discouraged.

"Can't you realize that you're merely wasting my time and your own?" complained the busy merchant.

"Why so?" asked the insurance agent.

"I told you some time ago that I was insured to the limit."

"I know you did, but a man will say most anything to get rid of an insurance man."—Philadelphia Press.

His Ignorance.

Minister—Now, my beloved hearers, next Sabbath evening I shall begin my special series of sermons on "Pharaoh of Ancient Egypt." Gambler in the Congregation (whispering to friend)—Well, wouldn't it fade ye to know the game dated back that far?—Chicago News.

Hug Their Delusions.

"It is the nature of women to be a delusion to men," growled the old cynic.

"Yes," merrily replied the young enthusiast, "and it is the nature of men to hug their delusions."—Baltimore American.
